

Pastor Reggie Denton

Pastor Reggie Denton graduated from Barnum High School and Gustavus Adolphus College. After college, he worked for two years as a counselor at the Leo A. Hoffman Center, a residential treatment center for adolescent sex offenders. He then attended Wartburg Seminary in Dubuque, IA and graduated in 2000.

His first call was as solo pastor of a two-point parish in Granville and Norwich, ND. He was a member of the Western ND Synod Council and served on its executive committee. He was a member of the visioning task force for Camp Metigoshe and was a mentor in the GIFTS program. In 2006, he began a call in Robbinsdale, just outside of North Minneapolis. He first served as the Associate Pastor and then for 6 months as the interim Senior Pastor.

Pastor Reggie began his ministry in Moose Lake in 2011. He again served on the Synod Council and chaired the area Ministerium. He led the congregation in many exciting innovations in worship, education and technology.

Pastor Reggie is married to Wendy, whom he met in college. They just celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. Wendy has served as the Librarian at Moose Lake Public School and the Technical Services Librarian at the Minot Public Library in Minot, ND. They have two children, Samuel (14) and Annabelle (12).

In his spare time, Pastor Reggie enjoys watching movies and listening to music. He is a huge Vikings Fan. His passions for ministry include preaching, music, planning meaningful worship, teaching, and reaching out to the community. He is excited at the possibilities of sharing ministry with the members of First Lutheran and the residents of Aitkin.
